taste in town!

Thanks for sending me suggestions for a new flavour, I liked white chocolate the best. Here's how it was made...

Are you sure you're ready for this ?!

Okay, but I've warned you... the crew and I got together for a little party at the old, deserted, spooky house at the end of the road. It was Friday the 13th, so we were getting into the theme of the day... not like we needed an excuse to have fun, mind you.

Great set up Coco!
Did you do all the spooky decorations yourself? They're sooooo lifelike!

A bit TOO lifelike for my liking!

Get 'em guys! Let's toast these GHOSTS!"

WIN $2500 CASH!

Check out these goodies Coco and his pals grabbed from the ghostlie's lair. Imagine if you won some money to buy your own cool toys - or whatever you wanted! See the new Ghostly Coco Pops pack for details on how you could win!

It's pretty chilly outside now, but
K-Zone has come to your rescue!
So snuggle up and get ready for another fun-packed issue!

Hello K-Zoners! This is my very first issue with K-Zone and it's so cool to be working on such a fab magazine. We have some big surprises in store for you and I am really excited! I can't wait to get to know you all... so keep your letters and emails coming! Check out Shrek on page 36 and find out what famous voices you'll hear. Also, we've got plenty of goss for all you Harry Potter fans on page 54. And who said winter is boring? Prepare yourself for some wild winter Xtreme sports on page 42. Get the latest on the GameBoy Advance in Gamers' Galaxy and read about your fave stars, cartoons, movies, songs and more! So, until next month, have a fabulous time!

Mel

P.S Don't forget to visit our cool website at www.kzone.com.au

This is my last month working on the best magazine in the world! You know why it's the best? Because of you – the readers! It's been great getting to know all of you through your letters and emails. Together we have had the best time! We all got totally lost in the magic world of Harry Potter and worked really hard to unravel the mysteries of Trunks. We went crazy for Crazy Bones and gossiped non-stop about the romance between Ash and Misty. (I still think they are in love!) Thanks for letting me be part of your cool world. I'm going to miss you all very much. Take care and have fun!

GOODBYE
K-ZONERS!

Ask the Editor!

Hey guys! Thanks for all the letters. You are keeping us so busy! It's fantastic. So keep your questions coming and we'll have all the answers for you!

Dear Mel,

I was wondering if you could tell me where I can buy a Meow-Chi? Also, do you know how much they cost?

Kacie

Dear Kacie,

You can get Meow-Chi from all Toys R Us stores for around $64.95. They are really cool. Have lots of fun with it!

Mel

Ian Thorpe's address so I can send him a letter?

Jack

Dear Jack,

He'll be happy to hear from you. Here is Ian's address.

Mel

March issue you have a picture showing nearly every goodie from Dragon Ball Z. I would like to know who the baby is that Bulma is holding. It can't be Trunks because he is already in front of Yum-Cha. Whoever it is, can you tell me about him or her?

Laura

Dear Laura

That is actually Trunks as a baby. Remember, he came back from the future so he was there at the same time that he was a baby!

Mel

Dear Mel,

I was wondering if you could help me with something? Do you know an address where I can write to Janet Jackson?

HI K-ZONE,

If I could take only three things to a desert island, they would be: every single issue of K-Zone, water, and some of my best friends to read the mags with!

HELLO K-ZONE,

If I were stranded on a desert island for a week, I would take an axe, matches and a blanket. That would keep me going for a week.

MATTHEW MODESTI,
VIA EMAIL

DEAR K-ZONE,

I would take food, drinks and clothes.

EMMA HOLMES,
VIA EMAIL

DEAR K-ZONE,

If I could only take three items to a desert island with me, I would take my two wacky best friends, and my Harry Potter books.

KIRSTIE WILLIAMS
FRENCHS FOREST,
NSW

DANIELLE, SYDNEY, NSW

K-Zone readers sure know how to prepare for a desert island adventure! See what three things they would take with them. And don't forget to answer this month's new question!

DEAR K-ZONE,

If I had to spend a week on a desert island, I would take water purifying tablets, a first aid kit and a six-foot Subway sandwich!

DAN BURROWS,
WAROONA, WA

HI K-ZONE!

I'd take your mag, some Mars Bars and a TV/video recorder! Can't miss The Simpsons or Digimon!

DEAR K-ZONE,

The three things I would take with me to a deserted island are: all my K-Zones, heaps of water and loads of pizzas.

JODI GABAY

MINA REZKALLA,
PERTH, WA

DEAR K-ZONE,

I always take three items whenever I go to a desert island: a sun umbrella for the sun, a rain umbrella for the rain and a compass, in case I get lost.

DEAR WONDERFUL K-ZONE,

Some things I just can't do without! I would take a fridge full of food, a Nintendo 64 with a TV and finally a television antenna.

EMILY-ROSE,
NSW

PERLINE MURKO, BLACKTOWN, NSW

Time travel would be cool, but if you're Flint the Time Detective it's serious business!

Flint the Time *Detective!

When inter-dimensional time criminal Petra Fina Dagmar turned the tables on her Flint with his father's time-traveling hammer, the super-powered time-traveling Flint was sent to the future. Flint and his father are found centuries later, and Flint realizes that they are 'defossilised'. Flint returns to the past to stop Petra Fina Dagmar to remain as a stone rock! This actually works out quite well as Flint can now use his father's a hammer and 'defossilising' beam! Armed with his trusty rock, his super-human strength and heart of gold, Flint sets to work with the Bureau of Time and Space, trying to protect the world from Petra Fina Dagmar and her two henchmen Dina and Miel!

You can see Flint the Time Detective on EOW Kids every Saturday at 11am!

The toons with the most votes will be aired on Kellogg's Breakfast Zone every Friday!

Digi-Bowl

FOX Kids welcomes you to the first Digi-bowl staged in Australia! Digi-bowl is a game of Digital football, where Digimon Series One goes into battle with Digimon Series Two. One team is called "Crimson Quake" and the other team is "Yellow Mash". The event will be hosted by Steve Carfino from FOX Sports and Digi Destined Izzy and Kari will offer comments. Each team scores one point for a hit and six points for 'saving the world' but can lose four points for 'wimp outs' or crying! See it on FOX Kids, Saturday July 7, from 8.30am.

FOX KIDS ON HIGH-ADVENTURE!

Digimon - Series Two

Digimon Series Two will begin on FOX Kids on Monday, July 9. Four years have passed since the last Digi-destined adventure. TK has moved to a new town where he befriends three new Digi-destined: Yolei, Cody and Davis. See the new eps Mondays at 4.30pm on FOX Kids.

TOONAMI

Singenpoo's Secret Weapon

By Paul Jennings

This is the final story in the Singenpoo series and features the winners from the Singenpoo Be A Star competition. Major Mac, the cat hater, is back in town so Scott and his pals (the winners) decide to try and stop him from exterminating the strays. But Singenpoo also decides to take action and he and his feline friends use their own special ammunition... we can't tell you what it is, you'll just have to read the book!

Silly Galah

By Jannon Bryan and Cheryl Johns

This book was illustrated by one of K-Zone's very own illustrators, Cheryl Johns! It's a series of beautiful rhymes, fascinating facts and awesome illustrations on some of our amazing Australian animals. We love it!

Book Making Questions

Q: Can you tell us about your new book, Adults Only, which is due out this month?

A: It's about an 11-year-old boy called Jake, who lives with his parents on a remote island. His parents run an adult-only greenhouse—one of those holiday hideaways where children aren't allowed to visit. So poor Jake has to make himself scarce so that he doesn't pester guests, and he leads a lonely life. But then he meets another kid on the island, and it takes him a while to discover who she is and where this from...

Q: Do you have any characters or people you know, or are they all from your imagination?

A: I think they're from my imagination. I never take people I know and say 'Oh, that person would make a good character.' The characters in my books are parts of me. Some people say that I still act like I'm 11 years old.

Q: What do you show your books to first?

A: I only let people read them when they're finished! I used to let my kids, but my son's now 16 and my daughter's 19, so they're less interested in reading my stuff. My editor at Penguin Books and my partner, Mary Anne, is often the first person to read them, and I've got some friends who are also writers, and we read each other's manuscripts. Oh, and I've got a couple of friends and neighbours who are around 10 or 11 and I get them to give them a read on stuff.

There are so many cool movies this month that you won't know where to start!

Now Showing

Shrek

A green ogre named Shrek and his wise-cracking donkey have to rescue Princess Fiona. But it's easier said than done. This is a twisted fairytale that will have you rolling on the floor with laughter!

Pokémon 3: Spell of the Unown

Ash and the gang come to the rescue as a little girl becomes imprisoned in her own house because of the Unown, a mysterious new Pokémon that can read human minds.

Recess: School's Out

TJ Detweiler's summer holidays don't go according to plan when he uncovers an evil plot by ex-principal Dr Benedict to alter the weather so he can do away with summer forever! With the help of his friends, TJ sets off to save the summer holidays for kids all over the world!

Back with MOORE!

Mandy Moore has released a brand new album, and we grilled her for all the details!

K&Z: Tell us about your new album.

Mandy: It's different, it's going to be 'Crazy'—it's a mix of music with a lot of instruments, but it's going to have some kind of a pop edge. Lots of guitar, a lot of strings, kind of like...

K&Z: Did you get involved in any of the songs?

Mandy: I actually got involved in that I co-wrote. It's a beautiful song. It's going to be the last song on the record, and it's acoustic. It's simple and it has a beautiful melody and beautiful lyrics.

K&Z: Have you ever tried to play a musical instrument?

Mandy: Yeah and I wasn't very good—I was told I had perfect piano fingers, so I decided to play piano and it was so frustrating! But I am going to learn how to play the guitar.

K&Z: We saw you in the Crash Charlotte film clip. Are you a fan of their music?

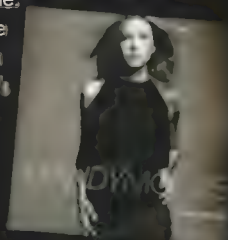

Mandy: I love them! They're on the record label. They asked me to do the video and I said, 'I'm gonna be in your video, I want it to be a amazing bond with you and I'.

K&Z: If you could choose a celeb to be in your film clip, who would you choose?

Mandy: I don't know! It would have to be some cute actor!

K&Z: What sort of music have you been listening to lately?

Mandy: The Beatles, anything that's on the radio... oh, and Craig David! I love Craig David! He's so cute. He can be in my film clip—that's who I want in my film clip!

{SHE'S SO DAMN FINE!}

On the eve of releasing her brand new album, gorgeous Aussie pop star Joanne wrote K-Zone a personal diary of her trip to Bali to make the film clip for her new single, "So Damn Fine". Here is what she had to say.

DAY 2

All I have to say about today is monkeys, monkeys and more monkeys! I saw the cutest monkeys today, although they were very cheeky! We were at a (fake) temple that is right on a cliff overlooking the ocean! We were preoccupied about the monkeys as they came in and out and steal your goodies, earrings, food etc. I saw a monkey steal a little boy's bag of lollies! We were actually thinking of filming some of the action (like here). If we do, I hope the monkeys behave themselves!

filming outside the temple and it was hysterical! Everything seemed to go wrong, the monkeys were playing up, we were getting eaten alive by insects and then it rained! Don't worry, that didn't stop us! In fact, it looked even better in the rain and it made the monkeys leave us alone! I'm glad today was a success, I was in a panic for a while there!

DAY 3

Hey there! Wow what a day! The hard work has begun. I spent the day doing a photo shoot at different locations around the

DAY 4

It's over! We have officially finished making the film clip for "So Damn Fine". My final scene was so much fun. I was thrown (fully clothed) into the water! The dancers and I rolled around in the sand and then it rained again! By the time I got back to the hotel I was covered in sand, water and seashells! I was a mess, but it's all worth it!

DAY 5

Right now I am taking a break between filming to fill you in on today's events. I've just finished filming one scene at a rockpool in the hotel. My dancers and I had a ball and the weather is 100 per cent! I love

DAY 6

Today I leave and I'm really sad. It's been hard work, but I had so much fun. I will miss Bali but I'll also be really glad to be back in Oz!

Hi K-Zone Readers!

I've just got back from Bali. I really hope you enjoy my new single, "So Damn Fine" and next time I go somewhere fun and full of adventure, I'll be sure to keep you informed.

Love Joanne

DAY 5

Today was full on adventure! The main film crew headed to the temple and the monkeys would not leave us alone! We did some filming

Wow! It's the Nickelodeon 14th Annual Kids' Choice Awards and who was there, sitting front row centre and getting ALL the juiciest goss? K-Zone of course! We talked to Destiny's Child, Cameron Diaz and Aaron Carter as well as a whole galaxy of other stars!

The Nick Kids' ch

So who ruled with kids this year? Well, the votes are in for Nickelodeon's 14th annual Kids' Choice Awards, and K-Zone was there, and believe us, we know who rules – and we got to meet them on Nickelodeon's BLUE carpet on their way inside!

Leslie Carter (little sis of Nick from Backstreet Boys!) couldn't wait to tell us about her brother's plan to surprise little bro Aaron with a pie in the face on stage during the show! She even let us in on this little secret ... she has an album coming out! "I'm so ready for this," she laughed. "We're just trying to figure out the right day to release it." You heard it first in K-Zone!

And while the dogs were locked up, the Baha Men were out to have F.U.N. "We can't wait to meet Rosie O'Donnell – we love her," they screamed.

Aaron Carter admitted to being a little nervous about the big night, but was very excited – his CD just went gold. "I'm presenting and I'm up for an award too," he laughed. "I just wanna make sure I remember everyone if I win."

It was a different story with Lil' Bow Wow. "I'm performing," he said, "and I'm up for two awards. Even if I don't win I'm just so excited to be here!"

WWF star, Chyna, reckoned that she was nervous about getting slimed. "I'm concerned about my outfit," she said. "That's why I wore a jacket. But I'm not going to just let someone slime me and get away with it. No way!"

Leave it to those Destiny's Child ladies in their super-hip boy scout outfits to steal the show. "My mom Tina designed these outfits," beamed a very proud Beyonce. "Boy scouts are survivors just like us, so what better way to show our support?"

Super trooper Rosie O'Donnell hosted the show for the fifth year, and even checked herself out of hospital for a hand injury to do it. Best of all, Rosie got to slime her all-time-fave actor, Mr Tom Cruise. He was up for the newest Kids' Choice award – Wannabe (the person kids most want to be like). And no one in the packed auditorium could believe their eyes when Rosie tricked Tom into hitting the slime button and sliming himself. EEWWW!

The Backstreet Boys (minus AJ), Destiny's Child and the unlikely duo of Aaron Carter and Lil Bow Wow, kept the audience grooving with their amazing performances.

Presenters like Mike Myers, Eddie Murphy, Cameron Diaz, Jackie Chan, Jessica Simpson, The Rock and Chyna, handed out the Nick Blimp awards to Britney Spears, Destiny's Child, Drew Barrymore, Tony Hawk and Aaron Carter, just to name a few.

At the huge party afterwards, everyone got to dance, play twister and video games, eat burgers (for FREE!) and do stuff that proves kids rule! At the Nickelodeon Kids' Choice Awards, they always do!

The Nick Kids' Choice Awards!

The winners talk to K-Zone!

Winner: Fave Show

KZ: How does it feel to win?

Frankie: Awesome! I used to watch the Nick Kids' Choice all the time and now the show's won an award!

KZ: Are you going to share it?

Frankie: I don't know. I can't really cut it up, otherwise I would. It won't really fit in my pocket either.

KZ: Did you think you would win?

Frankie: There was some tough competition – like Friends. That is such an awesome show. I can't believe we beat it.

Frankie Munz

KZ: Why

is this a great time to be a young person?

Frankie: 'Cause kids rule!

KZ: What's the best thing about award shows?

Frankie: I'm a fan so getting to meet celebrities is really awesome for me. I wanna meet Destiny's Child!

Tony Hawk

Winner: Fave Sports Star

KZ: What's the coolest thing about winning an award that is voted for by the kids?

Tony: It's the best thing to be voted on something by kids. I couldn't believe it. It's awesome.

KZ: When doing those dangerous stunts, what do you try to encourage kids to do?

Tony: To wear padding and stuff, especially when they're starting out. It's really important.

KZ: What's the most embarrassing thing that has happened to you while skating?

Tony: I was skating in an exhibition recently and I had just started going down a ramp. But I didn't see this other little ramp and I fell straight on my head!

KZ: How about those stunts you did on that TV prank show, was that scary?

Tony: Oh, the loop trick? I've done that before, but the one on the show was bigger than ever, so it was scary for me and I hurt my shoulder! It's an occupational hazard!

Drew Barrymore

Winner: Fave Female Actress

KZ: Where are you going to keep your blimp?

Drew: In my office at Flower Films.

KZ: What's your husband (comedian Tom Green) like?

Drew: Tom is a complete joker. He makes things fun. He lightens me up and I like the way he does things.

KZ: Is there anything he does that ever surprises you?

Drew: Well he's making a book called "20 Ways I Surprise My Fiancee" – He hides in a corner with a camera, jumps out and takes a picture of me! It sounds funny – it's not funny!

KZ: What's the most embarrassing thing that's happened to you on stage?

Drew: On the Johnny Carson Tonight Show, when I was six, I was walking out and I tripped. I'll never walk gracefully – I even tripped coming in here tonight.

KZ: Would you do a Charlie's Angels sequel?

Drew: They are writing one, and if it works that'd be great because we all get on so well!

KZ: What do you miss most about Texas?

Beyonce: The big portions of food!

KZ: Did the others feel left out when Beyonce was filming Carmen?

Beyonce: I wasn't going to do the movie 'coz I was so scared. But Kelly and Michelle told me they would kill me if I didn't!

KZ: How did she do?

Kelly: She was wonderful. She didn't fake her feelings.

KZ: Do you ever fight?

Kelly: We just had a fight backstage about our outfits!

Nickelodeon asked guests for their best belches and the audience voted on the winner! The gorgeous and talented Cameron Diaz won!

Cameron Diaz

Winner: Best Belch!

KZ: That belch was incredible. How long did you practice?

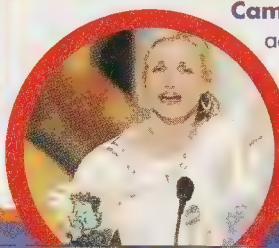

Cameron: It wasn't the best I can do. I'll try harder next time!

KZ: How do you feel about Drew winning best actress?

Cameron: She's my favourite actress. I love her so much!

KZ: Is it hard to be friends when you're after the same roles?

Cameron: No, because I don't have a competitive nature and I try to encourage friendship.

What's this? An
Ft.ifiable, green
ogre? A talking donkey? A kingdom filled with evilred
storybook characters?
All this is Shrek, the digitally animated comedy that's going to hit a huge hit
this winter.

SHR

Shrek is the ugliest name you can find alone in a swamp, enjoying mud baths and several more disgusting things that we won't go into here. He lives his grumpy life until his swamp is invaded by storybook characters who have been related by the evil Lord Farquaad. He and his friend Donkey embark on an odyssey to rescue a beautiful princess from an evil dragon. If they succeed here, the land will let the outcast people return to their homes, and Shrek will get his swamp back.

Bringing Shrek to the screen took a team of more than 50 animators over four years to complete. Using digital animation, every little piece of the movie was created on a computer — and each different object had to have a program written for it to make it move and react in the right way!

When you watch Shrek, you will see that everything has the same detail: fire, water, grass, even clothing. And one of the most surprising things about talking to the characters is how much they talk of their own and other characters' physical features.

Shrek is the first computer animated movie to feature a female in a male role. The directors filmed the actors saying their lines so that they very often suggest the facial expressions. "We used," said Cameron Diaz, "it's like watching your weird sister at home, one kind of looks like me, she kind of talks like me, but she's not me. It's very strange."

To keep the characters in their bodies and it makes the movie if anyone will be surprised to see the film. But I guess you still have to see the picture, just to believe.

For more great news of storybook movies, Cameron Diaz, Mike Myers and Eddie Murphy are just some of the famous actors you'll find.

Katherine Johnson

Did you know?

There are approximately 180 animation controls on Shrek's face and 585 body animation controls!

There are 51 key characters/storybook characters that appear in Shrek, including the Three Goats, Three Blind Mice, and Three Little Pigs. Over 1000 cartoon characters invade Shrek's swamp at the start of the film.

Shrek

Mini profile: Princess Fiona
Voiced by: Cameron Diaz

Like all true heroines, she's a little off-kilter. She's a princess, but she's not the typical one. She's a tough, and spirited, but she's also a princess with a deep, dark secret who waits for her true love to come along. She's a princess who's not like the others, but she's not like the others.

Mini profile: Lord Farquaad
Voiced by: Jeffrey Tambor
About him: He's the four-foot tall ruler of Duloc. He would like nothing better than to destroy the land of undesirable fairy-tale creatures.

Mini profile: Shrek
Voiced by: Mike Myers
About him: He is a big, green, ugly, smelly ogre who is happy living alone in his swamp. While he enjoys mud baths and tearing anyone who crosses his path, it takes a princess who yanks a punch to finally soften his heart.

Mini profile: Donkey
Voiced by: Eddie Murphy
About him: Never last for words, Donkey is a real chatterbox. But in Shrek's unlikely sidekick, it's not long before you see his charming and positive nature. Donkey also finds true friendship and a fiery romance where he least expects it.

WINTER X-TREME

Want to get into some radical sports for real excitement this winter? If you love
watching extreme sports
in summer - like surfing,
wake boarding or mountain biking - then you're going to love what you can get up to in winter!

Snow Mountain Biking

When you think of mountain biking you think of people riding along rough roads and bickering to the top of hills. But when you think of snow mountain biking, you get a much more radical and dangerous sport. Mass downhill racing sees all the competitors trying to get to the bottom of the course in groups of four, and along the way have to do jumps over tabletops, drop-offs and other obstacles. It's full on!

Aerial Freestyle Skiing

This new school of skiing has been influenced by snowboarding and you will see some amazing moves in the ski fields when they get on the half pipe or into something air skiing.

Snowboarding

Did you know that snowboarding began when a man called Sherman Poppin invented "snurfin'" (snow surfing!) in the mid-1960s? He was watching his daughters trying to stand on a sled and decided that he should make a board for them to use. The boards have come a long way since then and so has the sport – it's now an intense and fast-paced pursuit and the events are real extreme sports. Some of the events in snowboarding to look out for are:

- Boarder Cross: In this event, riders race across a variety of tabletops, jumps and other obstacles, and it's pretty intense stuff!
- Big Air: The rider jumps off a ramp. Five judges score each jump, evaluating each trick on difficulty, execution, take-off and landing. These jumps are way cool and as the name suggests, pretty big!
- Half-pipe: The boarder rides down a specially constructed area and does tricks off the side. Judges evaluate riders on height, energy, execution and difficulty, plus how they do their tricks and in what order.

❄ ❄ ❄ Snow Speak ❄ ❄ ❄

Here are some words you can use when you're watching snowboarding on TV... they'll make you sound cool!

Air: A jump. It's called air because it gets air under the board!

Backcountry: A place that skiers go that's not part of a ski resort – a bit more dangerous.

Carve: To ride fast through the corners. "She's carving it up!"

Double grab: Doing two separate tricks while in the air. "Man, did you see the double grab he just did? Cool!"

Face plant: When you fall on your face in the snow.

Freeriding: Just riding your board for fun.

Freestyle: Any type of snowboarding that includes tricks and manoeuvres

Hammer: To ride as hard as you can. "Man, I hammered it today!"

Sick: Crazy, really tricky.

Wipeout: A crash, as in "Did you see Todd Richards' awesome wipeout?"

Keep it in the family! Torah Bright's older sister, Rowena Bright, is the Australian Junior National Champion in the technical discipline of slalom.

Torah Bright

Sport: Boarder Cross

Nickname: Torz

Home town: Cooma

Birthday: 27/12/86

Fave place to ski: Perisher

Fave trick: A grab (a 360 degree spin)

Do you remember the first time you tried skiing? "I started skiing when I was two years old.

I first got on a snowboard at the end of 1997. I wasn't very good when I first started snowboarding, but I picked it up quickly and at the end of the first day I said 'Mum, I need a board'. Mum bought me an old Burton air snowboard and I haven't been back on the skis since!"

What's better, skiing or snowboarding, and why?

"Snowboarding is more of an adrenaline rush."

Which sports person do you admire the most? "My sister, Rowena Bright."

John Fletcher is regarded as Australia's most versatile snowboarder. At only 19,

John has challenged and defeated the best of the world's juniors.

John Fletcher

Sport: Snowboarding

Nickname: Fletch

Home town: Mosman, Sydney

Birthday: 14/10/81

Fave place to ski: Thredbo

Fave trick: Rodeo flip

What do you love to do when you're not training? "All sorts of sports, such as skateboarding, surfing, cricket and football."

Do you remember the first time you tried skiing? "I started skiing at age four and snowboarding at age nine. The main thing I remember about snowboarding is how sore my left leg was after the first day!"

FREE TIME!

Here's the low down on some of our fave Aussie winter athletes.

Alisa is a champion freestyle aerial skier. She was discovered by a Team Buller representative while doing trampoline acrobatics at a ski expo in 1994.

Alisa Camplin

Sport: Aerial skiing

Nickname: Ace

Home town: East Doncaster, Victoria

Birthday: 10/11/74

Fave food: "I eat quite healthily, but I often like to treat myself. My fave indulgences are honeycomb, chocolate ice cream, pizza... the list just goes on!"

Fave place to ski: "My home mountain, Mt Buller."

Fave trick: "I'd have to say landing a near perfect jump in competition is my favourite feeling on skis. Going fast or skiing powder is a buzz too."

Do you remember the first time you tried skiing?

"I started skiing when I was 19. I looked pretty stupid learning to ski with a serious team at that age. I used to crash all the time. It took a lot of personal courage to get through the first few dismal years, but after all the embarrassment, I turned out pretty well!"

The first time I ever tried aerials was also pretty crazy. I did a massive somersault off this jump and landed right on my back. I was so winded, but I got up and tried again. You have to keep trying in skiing and never lose confidence."

Which sports person do you admire the most?

"I admire every elite athlete. It takes such continuous hard work and commitment to be good at any sport. I do think, however, that the best athletes are the ones with the strongest mental approach. Athletes who consistently perform well like Tiger Woods, or others like Cathy Freeman and Ian Thorpe, who perform under immense pressure."

...did a massive somersault off this jump, and landed right on my back."

Majin Buu

What is the Majin Buu Saga?
Paul Lanning, Mungah, QLD

In the Majin Buu Saga, it's sort of (217-238). Buu is released from cocoon form by Bibidi's son (Bibidi), to help destroy Earth. He exists in many forms such as, Evil Buu, Super Buu and just plain Buu. The Majin Buu saga follows the Babidi Saga which comes after the Junior Competition Saga, which follows the Great Saiyaman Saga, which is the saga after the Cell Games Saga! We have a long way to go, but it's worth it!

What year was DBZ made?

Marco Cunha, Earlwood, NSW

Akira Toriyama created a manga in 1983 called Dragon Boy. This evolved into Dragonball, which was published in 1984. The Dragonball TV series began airing on Fuji TV Network in Japan in 1986 and the first Dragonball Z eps were screened in Japan in the same year.

Does Android 18 marry Krillin, and have a baby?
Robert Porcino, Gungahlin, ACT

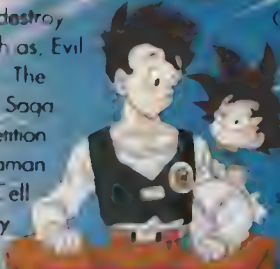

The rumors are true! Krillin and Android 18 do get married and have a blonde haired baby girl, which they name Maron. Aww How cute. And Krillin stops shaving his head and grows hair. So no more baldy taunts from Vegeta and Piccolo!

Goku

What does Goku get up to in the manga?
Ben Clay, Blackburn, North VIC

Yes, Gohan gets to train with Vegeta. Trunks, Goku and Piccolo in the Hyperbolic Time Chamber, and during this time, Gohan notices that Gohan has a power that he can't even imagine. And this was all thanks to the training up to this point. Gohan grows up and the surprises even Goku.

Baby Goku

What is Gohan's power?
Paul Lanning, Mungah, ACT

During the last born, Gohan, Trunks and Chi Chi and the young son of Gohan. He looks like his father, Gohan, and becomes good friends with Trunks. Gohan and Trunks also have the ability to merge and become Gohan!

Play The Crazy BONES™

Here at K-Zone we get so much mail from all you Crazy Bones fans! Check out some of our faves...

I have a great Crazy Bones game for you. It is called Crazy Throws. For this game you require

- 1. A Crazy Bones collector's tin
- 2. 10 Crazy Bones each.
- 3. Two or more players
- 4. Open your collector's tin and leave it open.
- 5. The aim is to try and throw your Crazy Bones back into the tin. If a piece lands on the lid, it is not counted.
- 6. Take one shot at a time and use all your Crazy Bones.

7. The first one to throw all of them in the tin, or whoever gets the most in, is the winner.

Randeep Dhaliwal, Lalor, Vic

My favourite Crazy Bone is #5, Baseball Egg, because I play baseball and my number is 5. It's the same as Baseball Egg's number and Baseball Egg is good looking.

Nicholas Brill,
Sandringham, Vic

My favourite Crazy Bone is Vampire Bone because when I play and use him he never ever lets me down.

Dean,
Melton West, Vic

This is the game I made up. It is called Hide Them Crazy Bones.

1. One person hides six bones while another person is waiting in another room.
2. When the person has finished hiding he/she yells out "Crazy Bones!" and the other person comes in and tries to find them.
3. The person has two minutes to find as many bones as they can.
4. If he/she finds more than one, they get to keep one of them, but if he/she doesn't find any, the other person gets to keep one of theirs.

Jack Newton,

Question in 25 words or less I would like to win a LEGO Bionicle set because...

Curious to know where Pikachu and friends come from? It all started in 1991, when a man called Satoshi Tajiri realised that you could link two Gamelboys together and imagined trading insects over them. So he developed a non-violent game where kids could train little monsters and trade them with other friends. Nintendo took the chance and the rest is history.

from deep within the dark vaults of cartoon history, k-zone has found some surprisingly top secret information on your fave toon, pokémon. read on and all will be revealed.

POKÉMON

secrets revealed!

SECRET 1: POKÉMON'S TV COUNTERPART

In the original Pocket Monsters Game, none of the monsters had a lead role. But the makers of the TV series decided it would be good to have a Pokémon as a central character. Pikachu won the part due to his distinctive colour and tail! But did you know that he narrowly beat out Jigglypuff for the lead role! Imagine what Pokémon would be like with Jigglypuff as Ash's best friend!

SECRET 2: MANGA'S TOP SECRET

In the original Pocket Monster Manga (1992), all of the Pokémon could talk! But this ability was taken away for the cartoon series because the makers believed limited communication and dependence on body language would add more interest and ambiguity to the series.

SECRET 3: MANGA MOVIE

The American version of Pokémon, The First Movie, is 15 minutes longer than the Japanese version of the movie!

SECRET 3: POKÉ MONS' ORIGINAL NAME

When first released, the correct Japanese name for Pokémon was 'Poketto Monstaa', but it was shortened down to Pokémon!

Crookshanks' Dark Past!

In a recent interview, JK Rowling revealed that Crookshanks is actually part Kneazle! If you aren't sure what we mean, grab a copy of one of JK's newest books, Fantastic Beasts & Where to Find Them. The book states that the Kneazle was:

"...originally bred in Britain, though it is now exported worldwide. A small cat-like creature with flecked, speckled or spotted fur, outsize ears and a tail like a lion's, the Kneazle is intelligent, independent and occasionally aggressive, though if it takes a liking to a witch or wizard, it makes an excellent pet. The Kneazle has an uncanny ability to detect suspicious characters and can be relied upon to guide its owner safely home if they are lost. Kneazles have up to eight kittens in a litter and can interbreed with cats. Licenses are required for ownership as (like Crups and Fwoopers) Kneazles are sufficiently unusual in appearance to attract Muggle interest." Very interesting indeed!

Stars Go Potty For Harry!

It seems that everyone is getting into Harry Potter as famous celebrities around the globe have been spotted reading Harry! Drew Barrymore has read the whole series, Cameron Diaz and Steven Spielberg are huge fans, Madonna reads them to her daughter every night and model Claudia Schiffer, was one of the first to get her hands on JK Rowling's latest books, Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them and Quidditch Through The Ages!

The Royal Treatment

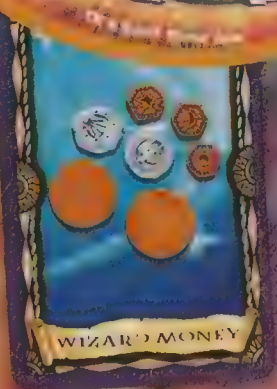

JK Rowling met with the Queen of England last month! The Queen told JK Rowling that she loved to read as a child, and that her grandchild, Eugenie, was a HUGE fan of the series. How cool! JK Rowling must be very proud!

Prophet

Hot Rumour!

The hot rumour is that Harry visits Azkaban in the next book! JK Rowling said, "Harry visits a few places that have been mentioned in the books, but we've never got inside before," she reveals. "He visits places other than Diagon Alley and Hogwarts. People will be able to guess where, I'm sure." We'd be willing to bet all the gold in Gringotts that she means Harry will visit Azkaban, though some people think it will be the Ministry of Magic. I guess we will have to wait until next year!

Encyclopaedia Potterica

Ever had trouble pronouncing some of the crazy names and terms in the Harry Potter series? Ever get a Hippogriff and a Grindylow mixed up? Well, fear no more. We hear that JK Rowling is working on a Harry Potter companion book that explains the terms and gives the correct pronunciation. We are not sure when this "Encyclopaedia Potterica" will be out, but we'll def. keep you updated!

JK's Mistake

JK has one regret when it comes to the Harry Potter books, and we've got the scoop! JK wishes she had never allowed her publishers to change the title of the book when it was released in the United States. The first book, Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone was changed to Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone in the US. She says, "They changed the title, but with my consent. I wish I hadn't agreed now, but it was my first book and I was so grateful anyone was publishing me. I wanted to keep them happy."

Did You Know?

Originally Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire was called "Harry Potter and The Doomspell Tournament." JK Rowling says naming her books is a very difficult process and sometimes she doesn't come up with a title until the very end!

GRUFF'S SHOW TIME

Well kids, I know your tails will be wagging as much as mine because the good people at K-Zone have asked me to give 'em a monthly rrrrundown on what's happening arrround the kennel.

You might've seen my new show, Gruff's Show Time, on Nickelodeon. If you haven't, you've missed out on a rrrreal doggy treat!

Let me tell you a bit about what I do. My first big job was to learn about sniffer dogs. Boy! Do they get in a stink about some things. Ha, ha, ha - geddit? Stink, sniffer, ha, ha, aaahhh, forget it. My next animal job was to go to a cat beauty show and it was a rrrreal beauty. Although I think it was more of a cat buffet... some of them looked VERRRY tasty. Ha, ha, ha. I crrack myself up, I rrrreally doo doo.

Next I'm reporting on some very special pooches who saved their human mates. They did stuff so brave they are going up on my "fence of fame". I'll tell you more about them next month.

Hey kids, if you have a 'PET-icular' job you'd like me to step into, or a star you'd like me to chew the fat with, or you just wanna say hi, you can contact me online at gruff@nickelodeon.com.au.

Well kids, I've used all the paper up for this month. But REMEMBER, if ya poop, ya gotta scoop. Scratch ya next month.

VANESSA'S ANIMAL INSTINCTS

THE DAY WE MET VANESSA SHE HAD JUST GOT A SHOUTY NEW PUP CALLED BRIDIE TO HER HOME. WE HUNG OUT WITH THEM FOR AN HOUR AS WE MET HER OTHER FOUR FRIENDS.

KZ: When you're really, do you have an actual weird question about animals?

Vanessa: I probably have been asked if an animal is a certain kind. Well, you know, like, do you know?

KZ: Do you get special treatment when you come back home?

Vanessa: No, well, I did go to the vet and they said, don't know if I can, so they said, no, the other way. I always have!

KZ: What makes you happy?

Vanessa: Being around familiar faces and naughty animals that do things they're not supposed to. I'll forward your from that?

Vanessa: I guess it's about 20 years old, but I've rescued some really animals that would otherwise have been put down, like Bridie here. I also bought two horses from the RSPCA that had been neglected by their owners.

KZ: How many animals do you have?!

Vanessa: A cockatoo, four dogs, two cats, three horses, a frog, a turtle, a chook, a rat and oohh, I think I've forgotten some!

KZ: Do they have any special talents?

Vanessa: I've got a cockatoo called Barry and I'm trying to teach him the words to "Who Let The Dogs Out"! We have four dogs running around it would just be really funny!

Make it Yourself

How to Make it:

Measure and cut a piece of paper that is about 40cm all around and a little thicker than regular writing paper. Fold in half and then in half again.

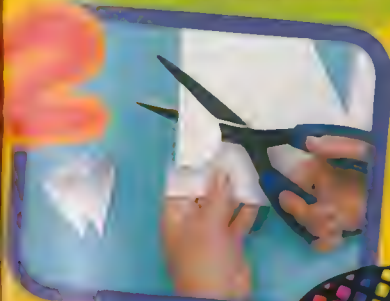

MAKE THESE COOL MULTI-COURED DESIGNS TO HANG IN THE SUNLIGHT AND WATCH THE COLOURS THEY REFLECT?

You Will Need:

- Large piece of paper • Pencil
- Paper to work on • Ruler • Scissors
- Glue stick • Coloured cellophane
- Hole puncher

STAINED GLAS

Using your scissors, cut shapes out from each side of the folded paper. Cut triangles, squares and semi-circles.

Unfold and lay flat onto a piece of glass paper. Using the hole puncher, punch holes out from around the design.

Apply a little glue around the inside edge of the cut-out shapes, including at the small hole-punched designs as well.

Place pieces of coloured cellophane over each hole and add put down onto the glue. Smooth down edges as you go and use different colours.

When dry, attach your starry glass design to a window or mirror with tape or blue tack. Wait and watch as the sun shines through it and creates special tracks and colours.

SIZZLING SAUSAG

MUNCH INTO THIS GREAT AFTERNOON SNACK -
PERFECT AFTER A HARD DAY AT SCHOOL!

YOU WILL NEED:

- Baking tray
- Table spoon measure
- Cup measure
- Mixing bowl
- Knife
- Grater
- Wooden spoon
- Pastry brush

INGREDIENTS:

- 2 sheets frozen puff pastry, thawed
- 400g lean beef mince
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 1 carrot, grated
- 2 tablespoons tomato sauce
- salt and pepper to taste
- milk to glaze
- sesame seeds to place on top

WENDY'S TIPS:

- Make rolls for the family and serve with mixed salad and chips, or with mashed potato.
- Max chicken or soy and frozen puff pastry if you like.

E ROLLS!

Preheat oven to a moderately hot 220°C. Lightly grease a large baking tray.

Separate pastry sheets and place onto a flat work surface. Cut each sheet in half.

HOW YOU DO IT:

2

In a mixing bowl, place minced sausage, onion, parsley, carrot, tomato sauce, salt and pepper. Mix well to combine.

3

Divide the mixture into four and roll each into 20cm length. Put one length down the middle of each pastry strip. Brush the edges of the pastry with milk. Roll up the pastry with the seam underneath.

Cut each log into four sausage rolls and place onto tray. Brush with milk and sprinkle with sesame seeds. Bake for 25 minutes, or until golden brown.

Welcome all you crazy gamers out there! This month is huge because I finally got my hands on the awesome Game Boy Advance (GBA). We've all been waiting for this powerful little beast and I'm happy to say that it lives up to the hype — check out the Gadgets & Gizmos Section for the gots! On the games front, adventurers can explore the long-awaited MYST III: Exile, while racing and action fans will have a double dose of fun with Crash Trix and Super Bombad Racing. To wrap it up, we look at ISS Pool International 2, which would have to be one of the best sports games ever and Scooby Doo: Classic Creep Capers, which will send a shiver down your spine. It's a huge month in gaming and it's only going to get better as the year goes on. See you all next month... GAME ON!!!

PS Don't forget to write in to tell me what you think of my section in K-Zone and send in any game sheets or cool websites. Also, if you have any game questions, drop me a line and I'll try my best to answer them. Remember to write your name and address so we can print the best letters and emails each month! CRAZY TAXI

PS2: 1 Player

Rated: GS

This is the game for all you wanna-be rabbits out there wanting to rev it up on the streets. After all this time, Crazy Taxi has finally screeched onto PS2 and what a host it is. One of my favo arcade racers, it's the perfect mix of speed, gameplay and fun. Hop into your cab as Gus, Gena, Axel or B.D. Joe and start raking up those cab fares as quickly as possible. It's a race against the clock to deliver as many passengers as you can to their destinations. This means taking shortcuts through parks, jumping median strips and avoiding traffic jams. The faster you deliver your fare, the bigger the tip and time bonus. So put your pedal to the metal and get ready for the time of your life!

GAME BOY ADVANCE

Well, the Game Boy Advance (GBA) is finally here! We've all heard the hype, but what is it like? In a word AWESOME! It has a 32 bit CPU, 50% larger screen with better resolution, plays 50% longer on a set of batteries and you can play multi-player games. GBA will play all your old Game Boy Colour games as well as the new GBA games. Overall, Game Boy Advance has surpassed all our expectations. Good job Nintendo!

NINTENDO CLASSICS

Back in the '80s when video games still had that retro feel, there were heaps of cool hand-held games. The guys at Jack of All Games have decided to re-release some of these classics in miniaturised form. They're called Nintendo Mini Classics and some of my all-time faves are here, from Zelda and Octopus, to Donkey Kong and Parachute.

The K-Zone Website

<http://www.kzone.com.au>

The K-Zone website has been live for a while now and I just couldn't resist giving it a plug! Of course, it's the best kids site on the net and there are lots of things to see and do. With heaps of puzzles, cartoons, competitions and games, the K-Zone website delivers everything a kid could ask for. Of course, there's also a Game Zone section where you can catch up with the latest and greatest game reviews!

The Girl Tech Website

<http://www.girltech.com>

This one's for all you cyber-babes out there! Girl Tech is a cool website specifically designed for girls and it has lots of info on women who have taken the world by storm. In Club Girl Tech you can chat online where you can talk to other girls all over the world and a heap of games to check out, like Princess Puzzles, Crazy Story Maker, Girl Tech Scavenger Hunt and Story Starters, where you create your own adventures.

The Moose World Website

<http://www.mooseworld.com>

Moose is the toy company that is keeping kids happy all over the world with totally cool toys. Here you'll find everything there is to know about Moose toys. Check out Moose's 12 year history in toy-making or contact Mr Moose himself with new ideas for toys. Download a Moose screensaver and take a look at the Twins virtual comic book. There's also a Twins game where you shoot dummies at the twins in the Moose Factory!

The Water World Website

<http://www.waterworld.com/children.htm>

This site has been designed to teach you all about water safety. There are hints and tips and the site is full of fun and games. There are also creepy interactive story books, like "Jack & Jim's Scary Adventure", where you get to choose where the story goes. Better still, there are a heap of goodies to download to your PC and lots of puzzles and games to play, such as Don't Back the Boat, River Challenge and Rescue Jim.

Sporting Superstitions

★ If you've ever worn the same footy socks for a whole season because you thought they were lucky, then you're not alone. Superstition in sport has been around for ages and here are some of the more interesting ones we found...

★ The number 13 is considered to be unlucky - no player wants to wear the number 13.

In tennis, it is unlucky to hold more than two balls at the same time when serving.

★ In baseball, it is lucky to spit into your hand before you pick up the bat. Don't do this if you're sharing one bat with the whole team!

★ In golf, carrying coins in your pockets is meant to bring good luck.

Ian Thorpe's Quick Q&A

We aim to please here at 8-Zone and, when we found out you guys love Ian Thorpe, we eagerly put hold of the man himself to answer some of your most frequently asked questions!

What made you swim for Australia at the 2000 Olympic Games?
 Nicole Poddini, West Suprabon, VIC
 Representing my country in the Olympic Games is one of my favourite things. It's something that I will never forget. Knowing that the Olympics were going to be held in Sydney inspired me to be there, competing against the best in the world.

Have you won so much money for world records and gold medals?
 Brian Bazinko, Padden, ACT

I really enjoy swimming and I enjoy having it. I didn't I wouldn't be doing it if I wasn't into it, except Sundays.

Why are your feet so big?
 Clow, McDonald, Perth, WA

I always want to have had large feet for someone my size. I'm not sure why they are so big, but my mum and dad both have pretty big feet, so I guess it is hereditary!

Hi everyone! If you enjoy what you do, then you will be good at it!

AFL TEAM 2001

THE AFL TRADING CARD GAME
WHERE YOU ARE THE COACH!

FOOTY ODDSPOT

Nathan Buckley

The number 5 is not only the number worn by Collingwood skipper Nathan Buckley, it also represents the number of times he has won Collingwood's Best and Fairest Award, the Copeland Trophy, and the number of times he has been selected in the All-Australian Team.

Matthew Richardson

The number 5 is also significant to another star of the AFL so far this season. Richmond's Matthew Richardson. 'Richo' has won the goal kicking down at Tigerland 5 times out of the last 7 seasons, the other 2 years seeing him miss through injury.
